HUSBAND - William M. CHANDLER-751

obit. source of VR info. about Wm. M. Chandler. Unable to locate a gr. stone in Rosehill Cemetery. The following is the obit. for W. M. Chandler: WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD, He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning., William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second Avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years & eight months. William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, & came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxanna Russell, of Camanche, & in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided. Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished. Of the immediate family a devoted wife & two sons--Lester & William--are left to mourn. The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment in the cemetery at Camanche. (Clinton Daily Age, March 19, 1893, p. 1) (Diary entry, March 20, 1893) "William Chandler died Saturday and is buried today at Camanche."

obit. source of VR info. about Wm. M. Chandler. Unable to locate a gr. stone in Rosehill Cemetery. The following is the obit. for W. M. Chandler: WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD, He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning., William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second Avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years & eight months. William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, & came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxanna Russell, of Camanche, & in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided. Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished. Of the immediate family a devoted wife & two sons--Lester & William--are left to mourn. The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment in the cemetery at Camanche. (Clinton Daily Age, March 19, 1893, p. 1) (Diary entry, March 20, 1893) "William Chandler died Saturday and is buried today at Camanche."

James McElhaney was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Wolfe this morning, for assault upon Officer James Cole with intent to commit murder. John McHale, implicated in the same case, found guilty by the jury of assault to do great bodily injury, was sentenced to four months in the county jail.

It will remembered that on the night of Saturday, June 23, at midnight, or shortly after, Officer James N. Cole went into Andras Andresen's saloon, at Camanche avenue and Harrison street, to quiet a disturbance in that place. He was set upon by James and John McHale, James McElhaney and William Ryner, and a desperate fight ensued in which Cole was so terribly bruised and beaten that his life was for a time [illegible] of

To: Descendants of the Early Russells of Fort Covington, Franklin Co., New York

From: Edward Leach, Descendant of Nehemiah H. Russell, Early Resident of Fort Covington

This note is really a long shot. I hope you can help us with a family history puzzle. I have checked census records, deed records, and many publications in large genealogical libraries in Salt Lake City and Boston, but I still have not been able to connect my ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, to the other Russells of Fort Covington. If one or more of you are a descendant of an early Russell, it is possible that you may have facts or even scraps of information that could be a source of answers. I am going to mention some of the material that I have found.

According to the 1830 census, five Russell families lived in your town. On page 53 of the census, there were Daniel, 20-30 years; Henry, age 30-40 years; Nehemiah H., age 40-50 years. On page 54 of the census, there were William, age 30-40 years; and Humphrey, age 50-60 years. The Humphrey household, in addition to Humphrey, had 1 male between 15-20 and 1 male between 20-30 (probably Humphrey, Jr.). These people had to be close neighbors, and they probably had family ties.

The heads of household between the age 50-60 years were born between 1770 and 1780; people between age 40-50 were born between 1780 and 1790; people between age 30-40 were born between 1790 and 1800, and people between age 20-30 were born between 1800 and 1810.

I found deed records in Washington County, New York, with Humphrey Russell and his wife, Sylvia, of Fort Covington, Franklin County, New York, granting property. I have requested copies of these deeds from Washington County in a continuing search for answers.

In October 1996, my wife and I visited Fort Covington; and we spent an hour or two looking for Russell grave sites. We found the following headstones that seemed to correspond to people listed in the 1830 census. Daniel, born 1804, died at age 52, in 1856; Humphrey, Jr., born 1804, died 1887; Sylvia, wife of H. Russell, died April 1853, at age 80. We were unable to locate a grave for William, born between 1790 and 1800; Henry, born between 1790 and 1800; and Humphrey, born between 1770 and 1780. I did locate a tombstone for Humphrey's wife, Sylvia. My ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, did not stay in Fort Covington. He and his family moved to Clinton County, Iowa, where he died in 1843.

We found a headstone for Henry Russell who died July 1817 at age 51 years. Three Russells were recorded on the same page of the 1810 census in White Creek, Washington County, New York. Henry, age 45 and over, was probably the Henry who died in 1817. He would have been born in 1766, so it fits.

If you have information or some scraps of facts that can help me make sense of these early relationships, I would be grateful. I will be glad to share any information with you that fits your ancestors.

I suspect that Nehemiah H. Russell may have been the oldest son of Humphrey Russell, Sr., and his wife, Sylvia., His middle initial H. which was used even on his headstone may have been Humphrey.

By George Ely Russell, C.G., F.A.S.G., F.N.G.S.

RR13.1-948. Nehemiah H. Russell, age 26-44, was head of the only Russell household at Stockholm, St.Lawrence County, N.Y., in 1820, with wife age 26-44, and a son and two daughters age under 10. [Census, p.146] Perhaps he was related to Roswell Russell who had wife Achsah Emery (from Walpole, N.H.), and was head of only Russell family at Stockholm in 1830; he and wife age in 20s, with an older man age in the 50s, and a son and daughter under age 5. Roswell had children: Jeremiah, John Daniel (1833-1918(, and Almira. In 1963 a descendant of Roswell was Mrs. Clara McLain, 4930 N. Thorne, Fresno CA 93705. Nehemiah's widow Mary was probably the M. Russell who was head of a household of six persons in Camanche Twp., Clinton Co., Iowa, in 1847.
[The American Genealogist 43:60]

RR11.4-844. Aldy Russell was head of family in Madison County, Alabama, in 1830; he and wife age 20-29, with two girls under age 5.
[Census in Alabama Gen. Society Magazine 3:120.

Mrs. Laurel Powell is a descendant of Alexander Russell and Jane Wright. Alexander (1721-1771) was born in Ireland and came to Pennsylvania before settling in Orange County, NC, where he died. Some descendants migrated to Bonham, Fannin County, Texas.

Anyone interested in the ancestry of the Russell family of Fannin County, Texas, are possibly connected to this line. Laurel Powell has excellent, well-documented records for this family which she will share. Please provide S.A.S.E. with your request. F.R.N.

ANCESTRY OF WILLIAM CHANDLER OF ROXBURY, MASS.

Contributed by G. Andrews Moriarty, A.M., LL.B., F.S.A.,
of Bristol, R. I.

[In the article here published the paternal ancestry of William Chandler of Roxbury, Mass., whose daughter Hannah became the wife of George Abbott of Roxbury and later of Andover, Mass., is traced through four generations in England to his great-great-grandfather, Thomas Chandler of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, who was born probably about 1475 and died probably about 1550. Like the article on the ancestry of George Abbott of Andover, which may be found in the Register for January 1931 (supra, pp. 79-86), this article was compiled several years ago by the late J. Gardner Bartlett from English records brought to light by him and from sundry New England records, and was purchased by me from Mr. Bartlett. It is here offered to readers of the Register as a companion article to the one giving the ancestry of George Abbott.—G. Andrews Moriarty.] **

The earliest known ancestor of William Chandler, who came to New England in 1637 and settled at Roxbury, Mass., whose daughter Hannah married George Abbott, then of Roxbury but later of Andover, Mass. (vide supra, p. 84), was Thomas Chandler of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, England,* who was born about 1475 and is given as No. 1 in this pedigree.

The surname Chandler originally meant a maker or seller of candles, an occupation in which many men in all parts of England were formerly engaged. Like many other names of occupations, it became an hereditary surname early in the fourteenth century, when family names derived from offices, occupations, or patronymics came into general use. There were, accordingly, numerous distinct families of the name, descended from different progenitors and, as a rule, not related to one another.

*For a brief description of Bishops-Stortford vide supra, p. 80.

 For pp. 79-86 see pp. 346-353, this volume.

1. Thomas Chandler, of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, probably a chandler by occupation as well as by name (vide infra), born probably about 1475, was living 19 Mar., 2 Edward VI [1547/8], but died in or before Hilary Term, 3 and 4 Edward VI [11 to 31 Jan. 1550/1], since in a fine in that term his son Thomas (whose wife Agnes also appears in the fine) is called "Thomas Chaundeler, Senior." (Vide infra, 2.) He married, about 1500, ———, who was buried in 1514, according to an entry in the accounts of the churchwardens of Bishops-Stortford for that year, given below.

As the court rolls of the manor of Stortford from 1399 to 1423 and the accounts of the churchwardens of St. Michael's Church from 1431 on have been preserved, and as no Chandlers appear therein until this Thomas Chandler is mentioned in 1514, it may be inferred that he was the first of the family to settle at Bishops-Stortford. No will or administration on his estate has been found; and all that is known about him has been revealed by a few entries in the accounts of the churchwardens of St. Michael's Church, Bishops-Stortford, and in the lay subsidies. The items in the churchwardens' accounts are as follows:

1514. Item, of Thomas Chaundeler for waste of Torchis at the buryyng of his wife, xvj d.

1518. Item, delyverd to Andrew Clyfton and Thomas Chaundeler for to fynde w^{t}alle a lyght before Seynt Myghell for a hole yere v s.

1521, 1522, 1536. Thomas Chaundeler a churchwarden.

1537, Palm Sunday. Inventory of church goods. M^{d}, delyv'd to old Chaundeler ij canstiks [candlesticks].

19 Mar., 2 Edward VI [1547/8]. Inventory of church goods. Item, iiij canstikes delyvered to old Chaundeler and Thomas Snowe. Item, wex weyng cv li sold by old Chaundeler.

This Thomas Chandler was taxed, as "Thomas Chaundeler," at Bishops-Stortford in the subsidy of 14 Henry VIII [1522–23], the amount of the tax being illegible, as "Thomas Chaundeler," in the subsidy of 34 Henry VIII [1542–43], the amount of the tax being 14s. 8d., and, as "Thomas Chaundler," in the subsidy of 37 Henry VIII [1545–46], on goods valued at £20, the amount of the tax being illegible. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 120/117, 121/160, 121/177, in the Public Record Office, London.) In the two later of these subsidies his son, "Thomas Chandeler junior," also appears.

Child:

2. i. Thomas, b. about 1500.

2. Thomas Chandler (Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, born about 1500, died in the spring of 1554. He married, about 1525, Agnes ———, who survived him.

Since he is the only person of the family name in his generation who appears in Bishops-Stortford, it may be assumed that he was the only surviving son of his father. He seems to have been successful and prosperous, as there are evidences that he acquired considerable property and left a good estate. The earliest mention found of him is in 1532, in one of four land transactions by fine in which he participated, in three as a purchaser and in one as a vendor, which may be summarized as follows:

1532. Richard Glascok, Thomas Chaundeler, John Jacobbe, Thomas Smyth, and William Sybthorpe, querents v. George Thompson and his wife Margaret, deforciants, for two messuages and lands in Stortford. (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 24 Henry VIII.)

1532. Richard Glascok and Thomas Chaundeler, querents, v. John Nobill and his wife Joane and Thomas Clyfton and his wife Joan, for a messuage and lands in Stortford. (Ib., Michaelmas Term, 24 Henry VIII.)

1541/2. Thomas Chaundeler, querent, v. George Tomson, gentleman, and his wife Margaret, deforciants, for a barn and land in Stortford. (Ib., Hilary Term, 33 Henry VIII.)

1550/1. Nicholas Marden, querent, v. Thomas Chaundeler, Sr., and his wife Agnes, deforciants, for a messuage in Stortford. (Ib., Hilary Term, 4 Edward VI.)

Some of the properties held by Thomas Chandler are shown in a rental roll of the Bishop of London for his manor of Bishops-Stortford in 37 Henry VIII [1545–46], as follows:

Thomas Chanler for a tenement that he dwelth in on the sowth syed of the heyght, by yere ij s. vj d. The same Thomas for certene lands late parcell of Hawers, ij s. iiij d. Itm, the same Thomas for a tenement in Sowth stret on the West syed called Sampson, by yere xix d. Itm, the same Thomas for a tenement in the wyder end of sowth strete on the est syed, by yere xxiij d. Itm, the same Thomas for a garden in basburne lane, by yere vj d. Itm, the same Thomas for the dovehowse and garden at Hacryelbryge, by yere ij d. (Court Roll 299, in the Public Record Office, London.)

As Thomas Chandler, Jr., he was assessed at Stortford 10d. on lands in the subsidy of 33 Henry VIII [1541–42], 10s. in 34 Henry VIII [1542–43], 2d. on goods valued at 40s. in 35 and 36 Henry VIII [1543–1545], and 3s. 4d. on lands valued at 40s. in 37 Henry VIII [1545–46]; and as Thomas Chaundler, Sr., he was assessed at Stortford 18s. on goods in the subsidy of 4 Edward VI [1549/50–1550/1]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/151, 121/160, 121/157, 121/177, 121/185, in the Public Record Office, London.) In 1546, 1548, and 1553 Thomas Chandler was one of the churchwardens of Bishops-Stortford, as appears from the accounts of that board, preserved in the church. An abstract of his will follows:

The Will of THOMAS CHAUNDELER of Stortford, dated 30 Mar. 1554. To my son John Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever the messuage I now dwell in, together with one garden in Basborn Lane to the said messuage [belonging (?)], and one croft enclosed at Waldinge, of four acres, with one meadow by the waterside, and one croft in Thorley that I late bought of Richard Pilleston, the said John paying yearly to Agneis, my wife, the rent of said premises during her life. To my son Thomas Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever a grove I late bought of Henry Perker, gentleman, of Berden, deceased, and my messuage in Northstreet I late bought of Edward Willay, the said Thomas paying yearly the rent thereof to the said Agneis, my wife, for life. To my said son Thomas for life my meadow of two acres I late bought of Mr. Tomson in Stortford, on the backside of Cawton the tanner, with remainder to my son Robert Chaundler and his heirs, and, if the said Robert die without issue, then remainder to my son John Chaundeler and his heirs. To my son Robert Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever my dove house, yard, and barn, my tenement in Stortford I late bought of Wardall, and my croft and pasture I late bought of John Turnor. I will have it remembered that I have surrendered my copyhold lands and tenements by the hands of Raf Smyth and Richard Bedwell, tenants of the lord's customary, for the use of Robert Chaundler, my son, and his heirs and assigns, he paying yearly to my wife Agneis the rent thereof for life. To Robert Chaundler £20. I will that my son Robert Chaundler pay to Anne Chaundler, the daughter of John Chaundler, 5 marks at the day of his [sic] marriage, and to Barbara Chaundler, daughter of Thomas Chaundler, 5 marks at the day of her marriage, and to Margaret Bedwell, my daughter's daughter, 5 marks at the day of her marriage. To my wife Agneis a lease of a meadow and tenement I late bought of Stonard. To six poor men of Stortford a pair of hose each. To six poor children of the same town a coat each. All the residue of my goods to my wife Agneis, who is to be executrix; and John Chaundler and Robert Chaundler are to be executors with her. Supervisor: my son-in-law Richard Bedwell. Witnesses: Raif Smythe, George Hawkyns, and Willm Bardnerd. Proved on the oaths of Agnes and Robert Chaundler, executors, 23 May 1554, with power reserved for John Chandler, the other executor, when he shall demand it. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, Garland, 7.)

Children, born probably at Bishops-Stortford:

3. i. JOHN, b. about 1525.

4. ii. THOMAS, ancestor of the Chandler family in America, b. about 1528.

iii. AGNES, b. about 1530; m. about 1550 RICHARD BEDWELL of Bishops-Stortford.

iv. ROBERT, b. about 1532; bur. at Stortford 2 Aug. 1611; m. before 1560 JOANE ———.

He was an executor of his father's will in 1554, paid an assessment of 10d. on the churchwardens' accounts in 1558, and was taxed at Bishops-Stortford 2s. 8d. on lands valued at 20s. in the subsidy of 5 Elizabeth [1562–63], 16d. on lands valued at 20s. in the subsidy of 8 Elizabeth [1565–66], and 10s. 8d. on goods valued at £4 in the subsidy of 39 Elizabeth [1596–97]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/202, 121/208, 121/271.) In 1570 John Miller was querent v. Robert Chaundeler and his wife Joan, deforciants, for a messuage in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 12 Elizabeth). On 6 Apr. 1583, 24 Sept. 1583, and 27 Sept. 1585, Robert Chaundler appears as one of the chief pledges at courts and views of frankpledge held for the manor of Stortford (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 206/2, 206/3, in the Public Record Office, London). He left no will; and, as the parish registers do not give the names of the parents of infants baptized prior to 1580, the list of his children that follows, while probably correct, should not be considered as positively proved.

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Frances, bapt. 6 Dec. 1562; d. young.
2. Mary, b. perhaps about 1565; bur. 4 Nov. 1582.

3. Frances, bapt. 6 Jan. 1567/8; bur. 11 Jan. 1574/5.
4. Thomas, bapt. 5 Feb. 1569/70; bur. 30 May 1571.
5. Richard, bapt. 16 Feb. 1572/3; living at Bishops-Stortford in 1614; m. ——, and had children as follows: (1) Robert, bapt. 24 June 1601. (2) Elizabeth, bapt. 17 Oct. 1602; probably m. 1 Nov. 1624 John Gryce. (3) Johane, bapt. 19 Aug. 1604. (4) Richard, bapt. 10 Apr. 1614.
6. Thomas, bapt. 6 Nov. 1575; bur. 9 Sept. 1597.

3. JOHN CHANDLER (Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, born, probably at Bishops-Stortford, about 1525, was living 17 Mar. 1581/2. He married, about 1550, JOANE ——.

He was a considerable legatee in his father's will of 1554, and was also named in it as an executor. But little mention of him, however, has been found. In 1563 John Denyzon was querent v. John Chaundeler and his wife Joane, deforciants, for a messuage and lands in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 5 Elizabeth, in the Public Record Office, London). At a court and view of frankpledge of the manor of Stortford, held 17 Mar. 1581/2, John Chandler appears as one of the chief pledges (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 206/2, in the Public Record Office, London). As he left no will, and as the parish registers of Bishops-Stortford do not give the names of the parents of children baptized before 1580, the names of his children are not known with certainty, but are probably as here given.

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

i. TOBIAS, of Bishops-Stortford, tanner, b. about 1551; bur. at Bishops-Stortford, as "Tobias Chandler old man," 24 Oct. 1629; m. 21 Sept. 1574 JOHANE MOMFORD, who was bur. at Bishops-Stortford 29 June 1618.

He was churchwarden at Bishops-Stortford in 1598. He was taxed at Stortford on goods in the subsidy of 39 Elizabeth [1596–97], the amount of the tax being illegible, and he was taxed there 8s. on goods valued at £3 in the subsidy of 43 Elizabeth [1600–01]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/271, 121/280.) At a court of the manor of Pigotts in Stortford, held there 1 Oct., 4 James I [1606], Tobias Chaundeler, Sr., appeared as essoin for Thomas Chaundeler, probably his uncle (Herts Genealogist and Antiquary, vol. 2, pp. 377–378). On 9 Dec. 1618 he was a witness to the will of his cousin, Henry Chandler (5).

The will of Tobias Chandler, Sr., of Stortford, co. Herts, tanner, was dated 20 Aug. 1627. In it he bequeathed to his three daughters, Margaret, Jhone, and Grace, beds, blankets, sheets, etc.; to his son John a doublet, etc., and his least Bible; to his son Robert his best horse and greatest Bible; to his son George his horseman's "coote," etc.; to Henry Moncke a shirt; and to Mr. Dillingham 6s. 8d., to preach at his burial. Witnesses: William Dillingham, Tho: Jennynges. The will was proved 24 Nov. 1629. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will, 1629.)

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Tobias, probably a son of Tobias and Johane (Momford) Chandler, although he was not named in the will of his supposed father, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 21 Sept. 1575 as Tobias Chandler [parents' names not given]; m. 22 Apr. 1604 Katherine Johnson, who in her will, dated 16 Apr. 1662 and proved 4 Oct. 1662, names her son-in-law, William Gyatt, her sons Henry and Thomas, her grandchild Alice Birch, her grand-children Luce and Mary Shuckford, and her son-in-law Thomas Shuckford, whom she makes executor. Witnesses: Thomas Rennals, George Osbuern, and Mathew Gurney. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will.) Children: (1) Tobias, bapt. 13 Jan. 1604/5; d. 16 Nov. 1613. (2) Henry, bapt. 19 Jan. 1605/6; living in 1662. (3) Thomas, bapt. 23 Feb. 1606/7; living in 1662. (4) John, bapt. 3 July 1608. (5) Jone, bapt. 3 Dec. 1609. (6) Alice, bapt. 21 Apr. 1611. (7) Mary, bapt. 11 Oct. 1612; m. 28 Oct. 1635 Thomas Shugford.
2. Margaret, bapt. 13 Oct. 1577; d. at Roxbury, Mass., 3 Feb. 1645/6; m. (1) Henry Munck (or Monck), who was bur. 10 Dec. 1602; m. (2) at Bishops-Stortford, 7 Nov. 1603, William Denison of Bishops-Stortford, bapt. there 3 Feb. 1571/2, d. at Roxbury 25 Jan. 1653/4. William Denison and his wife Margaret, with three of their six sons,* emigrated to New England in 1631 and settled at Roxbury, where they appear in Rev. John Eliot's church records. He was admitted freeman 3 July 1632 and was a representative in the General Court in 1635; but in 1637, being an adherent of Rev. John Wheelwright, he was disarmed. His descendants were numerous and influential. (Cf. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, Pope's Pioneers of Massachusetts, and REGISTER, vol. 46, pp. 352-354, 127-133.)
3. John, bapt. 4 Oct. 1579; living at Bishops-Stortford in 1629; m. 18 Sept. 1615 Jane Miller. Children: (1) John, bapt. 12 July 1616; living in 1667. (2) A daughter, b. and bur. 1 Mar. 1617/18. (3) Robert, bapt. 10 July 1619. (4) William, b. in 1623; d. s. p. in 1665, leaving a will. (5) George, bapt. 3 May 1623; d. in 1667, leaving by will† his estate to a widow, Dorcas, and two children. (6) Thomas, bapt. 11 Feb. 1626/7. (7) Edward, bapt. 7 Apr. 1629; bur. 9 Apr. 1630.
4. George, of Bishops-Stortford, bapt. 1 Nov. 1581; d. at Bishops-Stortford 23 May 1628. Children: (1) Elizabeth, bapt. 23 Aug. 1601; probably m. 27 May 1621 Thomas West. iii. Susanna, b. about 1556; m. 4 Oct. 1579 Joseph Taylor.

iv. Grace, b. about 1560; m. 3 Oct. 1585 William Rogers.

4. Thomas Chandler (Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, ancestor of the Chandler family of America, was born, probably at Bishops-Stortford, about 1528, and was buried there 4 June 1611, aged over 83 years. He married, about 1552, Joane ———, who was buried at Bishops-Stortford 11 Mar. 1606/7.

The earliest mention found of him is in the subsidy of 4 Edward VI [1549/50–1550/1], when as "Thomas Chaundler jun." he was assessed at Stortford 10s. on goods. He is taxed at Stortford in subsequent subsidies as follows: in 5 Elizabeth [1562–63], as "Thomas Chaundeler," 13s. 4d. on goods valued at £8; in 8 Elizabeth [1565–66] and in 13 Elizabeth [1570–71], as "Thomas Chandler," 8s. on goods valued at £8; in 39 Elizabeth [1596–97], as "Thomas Chandler," on goods, the amount of the tax being illegible; in 43 Elizabeth [1600–01], as "Thomas Chandeler," 8s. on lands worth 40s.; and in 3 James I [1605–6] as "Thomas Chandler," on lands worth 20s., the amount of the tax being illegible. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/185, 121/202, 121/208, 121/225, 121/271, 121/280, 121/302, in the Public Record Office, London.)

In 1556 Henry Hoye was querent v. Thomas Chaundeler and his wife Joane, deforciants, for a messuage and lands in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Trinity Term, 2 and 3 Philip and Mary).

Thomas Chandler also appears for many years in the churchwardens' accounts. In 1558 he paid an assessment of 12d.; in 1562 he paid 5s. for wood in Thorleywyk; in 1573 he was collector for the market house and in 1582 he paid 12s. rent. The churchwardens' rental accounts show that in 1592 Philologus Bush and Robert Smith held a double tenement in South Street, formerly Bowyers, where they resided, each paying 6d. per year. In the next year (1593) the said double tenement was held by Philologus Bush and Thomas Chandler, the latter evidently having secured Smith's moiety. Philologus Bush and Thomas Chandler continue to reside there, and appear there yearly until 1600, when Thomas Chandler is succeeded by Henry Chandler. Then Philologus Bush and Henry Chandler appear there yearly until 1619, when the latter is succeeded by his widow. These records are important, since they show that Henry Chandler was undoubtedly a son of Thomas Chandler and about 1600 received from him this half tenement. After the death of Thomas Chandler in 1611, it is recorded that Edward Chandeler held Lowemeade, late Thomas Chandler's and formerly Mr. Tompson's; this shows that Edward also was a son of Thomas.

At a court of the manor of Pigotts, in Bishops-Stortford, held 1 Oct., 4 James I [1606], Tobias Chaundeler, Sr., appears as essoin for Thomas Chaundeler (Herts Genealogist and Antiquary, vol. 2, pp. 377–378). Thomas Chandler also appears on several of the court rolls for views of frankpledge of the manor of Bishops-Stortford. At the courts held 13 Apr. 1577 and 27 Sept. 1577 he was one of the jurors; and at the courts of 5 Apr. 1578, 12 Apr. 1580, 4 Apr. 1581, 24 Sept. 1583, and 30 Mar. 1585 he was one of the chief pledges. At the courts of 5 Apr. and 27 Sept. 1578 Richard Comfrey was ordered to open up a right of way for Thomas Chaundler to go and come to and from Southmill field. (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 205/21, 206/1, 206/2, 206/3, in the Public Record Office, London.)

Thomas Chandler was churchwarden at Bishops-Stortford in 1562, 1563, and 1574. He left no will and, as the parish registers do not give the names of the parents of infants baptized prior to 1580, the names of all his children cannot be given with certainty; but there is proof that he had at least three children, Barbara, Henry, and Edward.

Children:

i. Barbara, b. about 1553; living in 1554, when she was mentioned in the will of her grandfather, Thomas Chandler (2).

ii. Agnes, bur. at Bishops-Stortford 20 Feb. 1599/1600.

5. iii. Henry, ancestor of the Chandler family in America, b. at Bishops-Stortford about 1560.

iv. Sarah, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 5 July 1562; m. there, 20 Sept. 1580, John Ingham.

v. Richard, b. about 1565; bur. at Bishops-Stortford 2 Feb. 1592/3.

vi. Edward, of Stortford, silk weaver, b. about 1568; bur. at Stortford, as "Old Edward Chandler," 9 Nov. 1653; m. about 1600 Ann ———, who survived him.

In the subsidy of 3 James I [1605–06] Edward Chandler was taxed at Stortford on goods valued at 60s., the amount of the tax being illegible (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/302). He succeeded to "Lowemeade late Thomas Chandlers" in 1611, and for many years paid rent therefor (vide supra). In 1614 he served as churchwarden (Churchwardens' Rentals and Accounts). An abstract of his will follows.

The Will of Edward Chaundler of Stentford [sic], co. Herts, silk weaver, being aged, dated 1 Jan. 1652/3. To my wife Ann, with whom I have lived a long season, all my household goods. To my son-in-law Justinian Aylmer, after the death of my wife, a tenement in Stortford where my son-in-law Symon Rutland now dwells, he paying to my daughter Susan, wife of Francis Onge, £30, and to my grandson Samuel Coe £5 at twenty-one. To my son Francis Chandler a silver beaker. All the residue of my estate to my wife Ann, whom I make executrix. Witnesses: John Rowe, John Howe, Theophilus Aylmer. Proved 17 Jan. 1653/4. (P. C. C., Alchin, 188.)

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Edward, of the neighboring parish of Ware, draper, bapt. 1 Feb. 1600/1; d. in 1650; m. about 1623 Elizabeth ———.

In his will, dated 8 May 1650 and proved 24 Apr. 1651, Edward Chandler named his wife Elizabeth, his sons Edward and Daniel Chandler, his daughters Mary Holley and Sarah Chandler, his daughter Susan Chandler (under twenty), and his children Martha, Job, Noah, and Rebecca Chandler (all under eighteen). (P. C. C., Grey, 63.) His eldest child was baptized at Stortford, and six other children were baptized at Ware. Children: (1) Elizabeth, bapt. 2 Oct. 1624; d. young. (2) Edward, b. about 1626. ix. Thomas, d. 23 May 1592.

5. Henry Chandler (Thomas, Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, glover, ancestor of the Chandler family of America, was born at Bishops-Stortford about 1560, and was buried there 17 Dec. 1618. He married, about 1590, Anne ———, who survived him and married secondly, 8 July 1622, as his second wife, John Miller, Sr., of Bishops-Stortford.

Although Henry Chandler's baptism is not recorded and his father left no will, it is nevertheless clear that he was a son of Thomas Chandler, as he succeeded to the moiety of the double house occupied by the latter (vide supra, p. 139).* Appended are the entries in the churchwardens' rental roll for this property in 1600:

Of Phillologus Bush for part of a tenement in Southstreet where he resides formerly of John Bowyer the elder, 6d.

Of Henry Chaundeler for the other part of said tenement where he resides, 6d.

Bush and Chandler thereafter appear on the yearly rolls as residing on this property until 1619, when the latter is succeeded by his widow.

Except for mentions of his name in the parish registers, no other information about Henry Chandler has been found, apart from his will, an abstract of which is here given:

The Will of Henry Chandeler of Stortford, co. Herts, glover, dated 9 Dec. 1618. 6. William Chandler (Henry, Thomas, Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, and of Roxbury, Mass., pointer, immigrant ancestor of the Chandler family in America, was baptized at Bishops-Stortford 12 Oct. 1595, and died at Roxbury 26 Jan. 1641/2, the Roxbury church records containing the following entry: "1641. Month 11to day 26. Willia' Chandler, a Christian & godly broth^{r} dyed of a Consumption." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 170.) He married first, at Bishops-Stortford, 29 Jan. 1621/2, Alice Thorogood of Farnham, co. Essex, the parish north of Bishops-Stortford, who was buried at Bishops-Stortford, as "Alice Chandeler, wife of William Chandler, poynter," 15 June 1625; and secondly, at Farnham, 6 Nov. 1625, Annis (or Agnes or Ann) Bayford, baptized there 12 June 1603, daughter of Francis and Johan Bayford.* Annis (Bayford) Chandler migrated to New England with her husband and four children in 1637, and, surviving William Chandler, married secondly, at Roxbury, 2 July 1643, as his second wife, John Dane of Ipswich and Roxbury, Mass., who was buried at Roxbury 14 Sept. 1658. She married thirdly, at Roxbury, 9 Aug. 1660, as

*Francis Bayford was baptized at Farnham, co. Essex, 13 Apr. 1567, the second son of Richard and Joan (Searl) Bayford who were married 10 Apr. 1564. An abstract of the will of Francis Bayford follows:

The residue of my goods to my wife Johan, executrix, to bring up my young children. Witnesses: Edmond Byshop, Richard Allis, Thomas Allis. Proved 3 Dec. 1622. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will, 1622, No. 141.)

his second wife, Dea. John Parmenter of Sudbury, Mass., later of Roxbury, who died at Roxbury 1 May 1671, aged 83 years. She survived her third husband, and died 15 Mar. 1682/3, the Roxbury church records giving her burial as follows: "1683. M.I., d. 17, Old Mother Parmiter, a blessed Saint." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 184.)

William Chandler learned the trade of point making, the making of the lace tags for fastening clothing which were in vogue before buttons came into use. By his father's will, in 1618, he received only £4, and it is, therefore, probable that he had already received from his father a portion of his patrimony.

Except for the references to him in the parish registers and in his father's will, no records of him have been found at Bishops-Stortford, where he resided until he emigrated with his family to New England in 1637. His emigration was due, without doubt, to the preaching of Rev. John Eliot, the Puritan minister known as the "Apostle to the Indians," who was born in the neighboring parish of Widford in 1604, went to New England in 1631, and became pastor of the church at Roxbury, Mass., being accompanied or followed thither by many adherents who had lived in the parishes on the borders of Herts and Essex.

William Chandler appears among the early proprietors and householders of Roxbury, and was admitted a freeman of Massachusetts on 13 May 1640. (Records of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, printed, vol. 1, p. 377.) He owned an estate of twenty-two acres, described as follows:

"John Dane his house and lott with a swamp before the house, butting upon the way leading to the house of John Watson east, in all five accres and a halfe more or lesse, upon John Watson's swamp south, upon the heires of Thomas Ruggles west, and upon the heires of George Alcocke north. And in the nookes next Dorchester being the second lott lying betweene Phillip Tory and the assignes of Joseph Patching ten accres and a halfe. And in the thousand accres neare Deddam.* All the lands with the house above mentioned were latly belonging to the heires of William Chandler." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, pp. 5, 39.)

This homestead of William Chandler was situated at the southerly corner of the present Bartlett and Washington streets, in Roxbury (see Drake's Town of Roxbury, p. 368); and it later became the property of John Dane, who married the widow of William Chandler, by grant of the Massachusetts General Court, as appears from the following documents:

"1649. At a Gen^{r}all Co^{r}te, at Boston, the 17th of the 8th M^{o}. Upon the petition of John Dayne, the house & land w^{ch} was W^{m} Chamb^{r}s [sic] is settled upon y^{e} said Dayne, he haveing paid more debts of Chamb^{r}s [sic] then y^{e} house & land was worth, & also brought up y^{e} children of Chandler. w^{ch} have bene chargable to him."

"19 Oct. 1649. In ans^{r} to the peticon of John Dajne ffor the settling the howse and lands of W^{m} Chandler (whose wyddow he marryed, & children brought up) on him, the said John Dajne, his request was graunted, & y^{e} said howse and lands confirmed on him by this Courte." (Records of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, printed, vol. 2, p. 283, vol. 3, p. 177.)

The following account of William Chandler, given in the list of members of the Roxbury church by his pastor, Rev. John Eliot, well describes his circumstances and character:

"William Chandler he came to N. E. aboute the yeare 1637: he brought 4 small childr, Thomas, Hana, John, Willia': his 5^{t} child Sarah was borne here; he lived a very religious & Godly life among us, & fell into a consumption, to w^{h} he had bene long inclined; he lay neare a yeare sick, in all w^{h} time, his faith, patiens, & Godlynesse & contentation so shined, y^{t} Christ was much gloryfied in him; he was a man of weake pts, but excellent fath & holyness, he was very thankful man, & much magnified Gods goodnesse, he was pore, but God so opened the hearts of his nabs to him y^{t} he never wanted y^{t} w^{h} was (at least in his esteeme) very plentifull & comfortable to him; he dyed about the [blank] in yeare 1641, & left a sweet memory & savor behind him." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 83.)

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN ENGLAND

Communicated by the Committee on English and Foreign Research

BELKNAP: ADDITIONAL RECORDS

Contributed by Henry Wyckoff Belknap of Salem, Mass.

In the Register, vol. 68, pages 83–92 and 190–198 (January and April, 1914), there was published an article by the present writer entitled "The English Ancestry of the American Belknaps," in which records from English sources were presented that showed that Abraham^1 Belknap, who was a landowner at Lynn, Mass., in 1635 or thereabouts, was baptized at Sawbridgeworth, co. Herts, England, 10 Mar. 1589/90, and that he was a son of Bennet Beltoft alias Belknap and a grandson of Richard Beltoft alias Belknap, both of the same parish. Richard Beltoft alias Belknap, grandfather of the Lynn settler, was considered in the article to have been probably a son of a Henry Beltoft of Sawbridgeworth, who, in turn, was regarded as perhaps a brother of a John Beltoft of Sawbridgeworth who died about 1546 and an Edmond Beltoft who was living in the same year. The Christian name of the father of these brothers was then unknown.*

Since 1914 more records that throw light on the Beltofts or Belknaps of Sawbridgeworth have been discovered among the proceedings of the Court of Chancery, in the Public Record Office in London, by Mr. Charles A. Bernau of London, who carried on the researches that led to the preparation of the article published in 1914. These additional records show that the Christian name of the Beltoft with whom the pedigree published in 1914 begins was Richard, that he lived in Sawbridgeworth and died probably in the first decade of the sixteenth century (1501–1510) or perhaps even earlier, that he had a wife named Christian, who survived him and was probably, although not certainly, the mother of his children, and that in his will he mentioned six children, John (given in the pedigree in 1914), Laurence (not given in 1914), Edmund (given in 1914), Thomas (not given in 1914), and two daughters (also not given in 1914). Henry, given in the pedigree of 1914 as perhaps a brother of John and Edmund, was not their brother. The newly discovered records show also that Richard Beltoft, the grandfather of the Lynn settler, was probably a son, or, in the opinion of Mr. Bernau, a grandson, of Laurence Beltoft, a son of the first Richard.

These records are here presented, and are followed by a more detailed statement as to the conclusions to be drawn from them, when combined with the records published in 1914, and the changes in the pedigree of 1914 that they make necessary.

*The article on the English ancestry of Abraham Belknap which was published in the Register in January and April 1914 was reprinted for the present writer; but almost the entire edition of the little book was consumed in the great fire in Salem, having been received by the writer from the binder only a few days before that catastrophe. Those who wish to consult the article will find it, of course, in the Register (vol. 68).

Further information about the children of William Chandler, the immigrant (6), may be found in Dr. George Chandler's The Chandler Family, second edition, Worcester, Mass., 1883.

Mendota,

Mr. and Mrs. John VanNess spent Sunday with friends at DeWitt.

J. G. Sherer, of Wheatland, was in the city a few hours Monday while on his way to Dubuque.

Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McCarthy, of Thirteenth avenue, welcomed a ten pound girl to their home.

William Walling and Sarah Keeler, of Garden Plain, were united in marriage Tuesday, by Justice O'Connell, at his office.

Chas. Eldred Shelton, a one time popular instructor in Clinton, is now superintendent of the Burlington schools is very popular there. He seems to have increased his powers of geniality since he left Clinton.

Fred Witte and H. W. Schneider, of Wheatland, and Joseph Cuddy, of this city, were appointed by Auditor Dieckmann to go to Goose Lake as a committee to appraise the damages sustained by several parties by reason of the construction of a ditch to drain Goose Lake.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Ellef Boysen were given a benefit entertainment at German hall, by their friends, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the aged couple's wedding day. It was thought that this would be a fitting occasion on which to give Mr. and Mrs. Boysen a benefit, says the Bugle, and the proceeds of the dance netted a nice amount. There were ninety tickets sold and those who bought them did not regret the outlay ward to with delight by those who like to see the giants in the council wrestle Græcio-Roman rules.

It is expected, also, that there will be the usual number of petitions to abate taxes. This has been declared to be illegal, again and again, in the council, but still it is an established rule of order, apparently, by sufferage, and as the council has been doing it so long it would take an alderman with considerable nerve to oppose the requests, legal or illegal.

Funerals.

CHANDLER.

The funeral of the late Roxanna Chandler last Sunday, with burial at Camanche, leaves a saddened home in the city, and two sons, thus orphaned, will miss the kindly voice, and loving nature which influenced them to manly ways. Many friends also mourn with them sincerely over the loss.

TRACY.

The last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. A. H. Tracy occurred at o'clock Tuesday.

A New Business House.

It is a pleasure to know that Peter Scanlan is again in harness, and is again a business man of Clinton, having established a splendid market at 714 Fourth street, which he will open with a full line of fresh and cured meats Thursday morning. Anyone who knows the genial Peter, knows his market will be a perfect one—neat, attractive—his meats perfect, and the attendance gentlemanly.

All voters in said city of Clinton must, in order to vote on the 6th of November present themselves for registration at their respective voting places on the days and between the hours designated, under risk of being debarred the privilege of voting at said election to be held November 6, 1894.

The registers will also be in session on election day at some place convenient to, but not within one hundred feet of the voting places, for the purpose of granting certificates to persons, who being electors are not registered because of absence from the city on the previous days of registrations.

All electors previously registered, but not having voted at the last general election held November 7, 1893, or at the last municipal election held March 5, 1894, are required by law to re-register on the days above mentioned.

Any person applying for registration in any precinct, who is registered in another precinct in the city, must before being registered, procure a certificate from the board of registration where his name is so registered, that the name has been stricken from such registry list.

THE RAILWAYS

Agent Ramsay, of Amber, was in the city Wednesday.

Chief Train Dispatcher Ed. Smith is away down in Texas having a jolly time, shooting, fishing and swapping yarns with the rangers. Ed is a good prohibitionits when at home, but of course when away is not expected to be quite as good. And here is how. He was out shooting when a big six footer with broad sombrero came up to him and said: "Here, kid, you vamoose." Ed didn't know exactly what it meant but he thought the fire in the eyes meant he could not shoot on that ranch and he had better get off. He meekly asked how far it was off of this Texan's farm when the man said: "Seven miles and you puckachee d—— quick." Ed is a diplomat. He had no desire to run seven miles with 45 calibre bullets chasing him, so he says: "Mister, I've got some fine Milwaukee beer over in my way car, don't you want to couple on to it. I'll give you a clearance ticket. That struck the Texas ranchman and now Smith hunts every day on that ranch undisturbed, while the employes of the ranch herd game toward him. Funny, now a little beer can save a life, isn't it?

Pleasures.

One of the prettiest parties given in his section was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Smith, of Morrison, Friday night—a fancy dress party, many of the costumes being extremely pretty. Hoffman's harp orchestra played.

been one of the most successful agricultural associations in the state. Its affairs have been managed with excellent skill and business tact. Very much of its success is due to the personal interest taken by Mr. Staggs and in the management which he was responsible for. He has always taken great interest in school matters, in town improvements, never failing to secure the respect of his neighbors and the community in which he resides. He is thoroughly acquainted with the interests of the county, and as supervisor he would take the same pride in seeing that they were successfully and economically taken care of, as he has been in regard to the agricultural association. Probably a better selection of supervisor could not have been made. A man of the strictest integrity, honorable and upright in his dealings with his fellow man, he is just that kind of a person the democratic party delights in making a county supervisor of.

So every one sees it is a grand, good ticket. It has not a weak link in it. Every name is strong. Every name has borne the test of time. If there are any democrats not satisfied with it they would not be satisfied if the ticket was made up of angels. But we believe every democrat in the county will vote for it. That done Clinton county on the 6th of November will give one of its old time democratic majorities.

Mr. and Mrs. John VanNess spent Sunday with friends at DeWitt.

J. G. Sherer, of Wheatland, was in the city a few hours Monday while on his way to Dubuque.

Monday morning, Mr and Mrs. P. H. McCarthy, of Thirteenth avenue, welcomed a ten pound girl to their home.

William Walling and Sarah Keeler, of Garden Plain, were united in marriage Tuesday, by Justice O'Connell, at his office.

Chas. Eldred Shelton, a one time popular instructor in Clinton, is now superintendent of the Burlington schools is very popular there. He seems to have increased his powers of geniality since he left Clinton.

Fred Witte and H. W. Schneider, of Wheatland, and Joseph Cuddy, of this city, were appointed by Auditor Dieckmann to go to Goose Lake as a committee to appraise the damages sustained by several parties by reason of the construction of a ditch to drain Goose Lake.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Ellef Boysen were given a benefit entertainment at German hall, by their friends, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the aged couple's wedding day. It was thought that this would be a fitting occasion on which to give Mr. and Mrs. Boysen a benefit, says the Bugle, and the proceeds of the dance netted a nice amount. There were ninety tickets sold and those who bought them did not regret the outlay

It is expected, also, that there will be the usual number of petitions to abate taxes. This has been declared to be illegal, again and again, in the council, but still it is an established rule of order, apparently, by sufferage, and as the council has been doing it so long it would take an alderman with considerable nerve to oppose the requests, legal or illegal.

CHANDLER.

The funeral of the late Roxanna Chandler last Sunday, with burial at Camanche, leaves a saddened home in the city, and two sons, thus orphaned, will miss the kindly voice, and loving nature which influenced them to manly ways. Many friends also mourn with them sincerely over the loss.

The last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. A. H. Tracy occurred at o'clock Tuesday.

A New Business House.

It is a pleasure to know that Peter Scanlan is again in harness, and is again a business man of Clinton, having established a splendid market at 714 Fourth street, which he will open with a full line of fresh and cured meats Thursday morning. Anyone who knows the genial Peter, knows his market will be a perfect one—neat, attractive—his meats perfect, and the attendance gentlemanly.

Agent Ramsay, of Amber, was in the city Wednesday.

—Chief Train Dispatcher Ed. Smith is away down in Texas having a jolly time, shooting, fishing and swapping yarns with the rangers. Ed is a good prohibitionits when at home, but of course when away is not expected to be quite as good. And here is how. He was out shooting when a big six footer with broad sombrero came up to him and said: "Here, kid, you vamoose." Ed didn't know exactly what it meant but he thought the fire in the eyes meant he could not shoot on that ranch and he had better get off. He meekly asked how far it was off of this Texan's farm when the man said: "Seven miles and you puckachee d—— quick." Ed is a diplomat. He had no desire to run seven miles with 45 calibre bullets chasing him, so he says: "Mister, I've got some fine Milwaukee beer over in my way car, don't you want to couple on to it. I'll give you a clearance ticket. That struck the Texas ranchman and now Smith hunts every day on that ranch undisturbed, while the employes of the ranch herd game toward him. been one of the most successful agricultural associations in the state. Its affairs have been managed with excellent skill and business tact. Very much of its success is due to the personal interest taken by Mr. Staggs and in the management which he was responsible for. He has always taken great interest in school matters, in town improvements, never failing to secure the respect of his neighbors and the community in which he resides. He is thoroughly acquainted with the interests of the county, and as supervisor he would take the same pride in seeing that they were successfully and economically taken care of, as he has been in regard to the agricultural association. Probably a better selection of supervisor could not have been made. A man of the strictest integrity, honorable and upright in his dealings with his fellow man, he is just that kind of a person the democratic party delights in making a county supervisor of.

So every one sees it is a grand, good ticket. It has not a weak link in it. Every name is strong. Every name has borne the test of time. If there are any democrats not satisfied with it they would not be satisfied if the ticket was made up of angels. But we believe every democrat in the county will vote for it. That done Clinton county on the 6th of November will give one of its old time democratic majorities.

From Thursday's Daily.

The 1894-5 Y. M. C. A. lecture course was opened at the Davis opera house last evening by Dr. A. A. Willits, of Spring Lake, N. J., on "The Model Wife." Every seat in the body of the house had been sold, and many who were late in securing their seats had to be content with the balcony. It was a splendid audience, and as the venerable but sprightly Doctor was introduced by Secretary J. P. Smith he expressed his gratification that the people of Clinton so liberally patronized and aided this great and noble American institution, the Y. M. C. A.

For the text of his lecture on "The Model Wife," Dr. Willits read an English translation of the Hebrew alphabetical acrostic on women, found in Psalms. This the Doctor thought was the grandest tribute ever paid to woman. This acrostic consisted of 24 short sentences on women, one beginning with each letter of the alphabet. Unfortunately, the translation spoiled the acrostic feature of it, but the sentiment was not impaired.

Dr. Willetts took these up one by one, and he soon had the large audience enraptured. His winning presence and admirable delivery, coupled with the practical philosophy and sparkling wi[illegible],

James McElhaney was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Wolfe this morning, for assault upon Officer James Cole with intent to commit murder. John McHale, implicated in the same case, found guilty by the jury of assault to do great bodily injury, was sentenced to four months in the county jail.

It will remembered that on the night of Saturday, June 23, at midnight, or shortly after, Officer James N. It was during the fight that Officer Cole, in self-defense, shot William Ryner, who died from the effects of the wound the following day.

The trial began in the District Court Tuesday, Sept. 25, and lasted three days. It took the jury thirteen hours to render a verdict, which was as follows: We, the jury, find James McElhaney guilty of assault with intent to commit murder, and James and John McHale guilty of assault with intent to do great bodily

From Thursday's Daily.

The 1894-5 Y. M. C. A. lecture course was opened at the Davis opera house last evening by Dr. A. A. Willits, of Spring Lake, N. J., on "The Model Wife." Every seat in the body of the house had been sold, and many who were late in securing their seats had to be content with the balcony. It was a splendid audience, and as the venerable but sprightly Doctor was introduced by Secretary J. P. Smith he expressed his gratification that the people of Clinton so liberally patronized and aided this great and noble American institution, the Y. M. C. A.

For the text of his lecture on "The Model Wife," Dr. Willits read an English translation of the Hebrew alphabetical acrostic on women, found in Psalms. This the Doctor thought was the grandest tribute ever paid to woman. This acrostic consisted of 24 short sentences on women, one beginning with each letter of the alphabet. Unfortunately, the translation spoiled the acrostic feature of it, but the sentiment was not impaired.

Dr. Willetts took these up one by one, and he soon had the large audience enraptured. His winning presence and admirable delivery, coupled with the practical philosophy and sparkling wit,

Then hat Kelly Bros., owing to the have recently added f parlor furniture to their catalogue of fine goods, increase of trade upon had become so great e their personal and un ention to the furniture d turned over what is Kelly Bros'. addition to Clinton to those indomits the Walsh Brothers, who ol the sale of lots for the on.

tion is located immediate city, and yet be away from the dust, noise and turmoil.

To those who are not already perfectly familiar with the place, we would say that it is but ten blocks from the postoffice and is easily accessible to the business part of the city by means of the electric street railway, which runs through the addition.

With the tremendous strides the city is making towards becoming the first city of Iowa, far seeing people recognize the importance of locating their residences a little further out than has been done heretofore, as is clearly shown by the numerous palatial dwellings which were built in that immediate neighborhood last year.

With this addition fixed up in the same order of elegance as Van Deventer place, which it certainly will be, as Walsh Bros. told the reporter it would be, the Rev. looks to see those fifty-six lots picked up in a hurry.

Verily, Clinton is in the push this spring.

WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD.

X

He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning.

William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years and eight months.

William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxana Russell, of Camanche, and in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided.

Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished.

Of the immediate family a devoted wife and two sons—Lester and William —are left to mourn.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment in the cemetery at Camanche.

The Ringwood Columbian Class held another interesting session last Friday evening with a full attendance, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warfield. The first part of the program was given to the discussion of the Light House, Coast Survey and Life Saving Service, following which was the lesson of the evening, on the history and manufacture of silks, carpets, tapestries and gloves, also an account of our great fur trade. The desire to complete the course before the opening of the World's Fair in May has necessitated a wide range of subjects at each evening's lesson, but the members feel that they have been led to pleasant heights from which their views of the world in its past and present condition, its developments, governments and industries, have been greatly extended and that the course is proving a fine preparatory for future careful study.

CLINTON BICYCLERS.

MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE SEASON.

Organization of the Y. M. C. A. Club—Their Meeting Saturday Night—By-laws adopted—The Association's Position on the Sunday Riding Subject.

The wheelmen of Clinton have begun active preparations for the bicycling season of 1893, and already country runs, relay races, five mile dashes, prize contests and fancy riding exhibits are being talked of. The two fine days of last week had the effect of stimulating a number of the boys who have been patiently waiting for the ice and snow to go off: and from winter quarters, in the attic, many a wheel was brought out, rubbed up and put in readiness for active work.

The snow of Saturday night put a damper on the hopes of some of the enthusiasts who had been rubbing on "elbow grease" in preparation for an inspection of our ten miles of brick paved streets yesterday, but they are all enthusiastic over the coming season's work and have only a contemptuous sneer for the fellow who says that the bicycle craze is dying out. It can safely be said that more wheels will be seen on our splendid brick paved streets this coming season than ever before. Several of the boys who rode second hand machines last season have decided to invest their winter's earnings in a new pneumatic tired safety, and a number of new converts who

It can safely be said that more wheels will be seen on our splendid brick paved streets this coming season than ever before. Several of the boys who rode second hand machines last season have decided to invest their winter's earnings in a new pneumatic tired safety, and a number of new converts who didn't think much of bicycling last season are of the sensible opinion now that it is just the thing and will ride wheels this season, and they won't be the wheels in their heads either.

The Y. M. C. A. bicyclers held a meeting Saturday night to organize a club. Mr. Bert Sones was appointed temporary chairman, Chas Towle, secretary. Messrs Harry Oates and Chas. Little were appointed a committee on organization and a meeting has been called for Thursday night of this week, March 23d, at 8:30 o'clock. It has been agreed that the new club shall be known as the Bicycle Club of the Young Men's Christian Association and that its officers shall consist of a president, secretary, treasurer and captain. The following by-laws were read and approved at the Saturday night meeting:

The membership of the club shall be limited to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association of Clinton

The object of the club shall be solely as its name indicates and shall be only for the pleasure and profit of its members.

The membership dues shall be such a sum as a majority shall elect.

The meetings shall be at the call of the officers who shall constitute the executive committee

Members shall forfeit their place in the Club as well as in the Association if in pursuing the above object Sundays they wear the Club Badge, Uniform or use its name.

It is also understood that every member holds himself accountable for a gentlemanly deportment of conduct, conversation and language.

The Clinton County Cyclers, with a membership of over thirty, reorganize for the season's work in the near future. The membership will be recruited by a number of new members and the club is Lakewood has long been considered one of the outstanding memorial parks in America. It was conceived and founded in 1871 as a community trust, forever free of commercialism for private gain. It is a mutual non-profit, non-sectarian perpetual care cemetery. It consists of 250 acres of gentle hills located in a beautiful setting between Lake Calhoun and Lake Harriet. The tasteful landscaping and architecture is a statement of loving care and beauty.

The Memorial Chapel is truly an architectural masterpiece. With its tiled domes and Byzantine-inspired design, the Chapel contains one of the largest true mosaics in the western world.

Lakewood has complete facilities, a public mausoleum, chapel, crematory, columbarium, lawn crypts, garden crypts, traditional burial lots as well as family type monument lots. Pre-need memorial property may be purchased on a budget purchase plan that can be easily tailored to your requirements. There is no interest or carrying charge.

THE CHANDLER FAMILY AND ITS COAT OF ARMS

MOTTO: "Ad mortem fidelis".
(Faithful unto death)

ARMS: Chequy argent and azure, on a bend engrailed sable three lions passant or.

CREST: A pelican in her piety or,
the nest vert.

This old English surname is no doubt derived from the Norman "le Chaundeler", a title for the person in charge of the lighting of his lord's castle. It is likely that the progenitor of the family in England was among the followers of William the Conqueror during the Conquest in 1066, for the name appears in old English records soon after that time.

The le Chaundelers appear to have first been established in Wiltshire and it is recorded that Nicholas le Chandeler was with Prince Edward at the Battle of Evesham, for which he received an annuity for life in recognition of his faithful services.

The name appears to have remained unchanged until about 1450 when John Chandler, eighth generation from Nicholas, assumed the present spelling. The fifteenth generation, George of Oare, in the Parish of Wilcot, Wiltshire sailed to the New World with his wife Jane, seven children, and his brother John. George died enroute and the widow and family settled at Brandywine in Delaware in 1686.

One reference consulted lists William Chandler of Essex, England as having settled at Roxbury, Mass. about 1637 with his wife, Annis Alcock and four children. His son, Thomas Chandler married Hannah Brewer and they had eight children. Thomas became wealthy operating an iron works and attained distinction as representative to the General Court at Andover. He died in 1703.

Therefore, it is not surprising that the name Chandler was within a few generations found in many of the colonies as the pioneers won a nation from the wilderness. While no attempt is made here to trace the countless descendants of these first Americans, it is noted that persons bearing this old distinguished family name are now to be found in almost every section of the United States. They are well represented in the arts, sciences and professions and American history pays just tribute to their contributions in making America great and keeping her free.

Wed. July 5

Dear Cousins, one and all, by adoption!!!

I am sure you are thinking I have forgotten you, but never never in any way could we forget you. Meeting you all was like finding long lost friends, I felt I knew you all the minute we met and knew this would be a life time friendship. My reason for not writing or excuse I should probably say is---I was impatiently waiting for the article to come out in the paper. Finally after calling my superior about it and bringing it to his attention he remarked since there was no time element involved he was waiting for sufficient room in a Sunday edition. So finally this Sunday sure enough it was in and was well worth the waiting since very little of it was cut. Than I had to wait to write after the 4th of July as I was busy getting ready for a party for the senior citizens of Camanche here at the farm---so now here I am, with enclosed clipping.

A couple of Sunday's ago I had Mary Mc Kenrick and my Mom (they are life time friends and neighbors) out for supper and they sat here cutting rhubarb for me during the afternoon. I got so tickled as Mary was telling my Mom all about you folks and how you were all related. She said she could think of so many more things to tell you after you were gone. They were so busy talking and didn't realize they had cut up a hugh pan full of rhubarb. Just as they were finishing up Don and I raced out to the garden cut another pan full, washed it and put it in front of them and they kept right on talking and cutting. Finally Mary looked up at me and said, "I was so sure that pan was nearly empty a minute ago" and how she laughed when I told her we had been outside cutting rhubarb and those two didn't even miss us. She is a grand lady, and you really made her day by visiting with her. She always says all her old timers are gone and there are very few that care to hear what she has to say. I could enjoy being with her for hours and really should spend more time than I do with her. She is wanting to come now when I do beans and apples and I just may plan another Sunday for both of them.

Now I must take a minute to explain about my trip to Rosehill cemetery in Camanche. I contacted the custodian and took him to the burial site of your great grandparents He did prob attempting to locate a burial of Roxanne but didn't really hit anything or any air space, however, they both agreed that having been buried that many years ago and at that time everything would have been wooden there was all indications that she is buried at that spot between her husband and child. There could be no other logical place and also Mary said the same thing. If you can think of any other records I could search here in Clinton I would be more than happy to do so. Betty I can't remember if you checked the death and burial records at the court house for her that might indicate something but as the caretakers stated if the obituary said she was buried in Camanche that is the only possible place and why wouldn't she be buried near her husband. So I think you can rest assured she is buried at that spot.

I must tell you again how delighted I am with my David Winter Chapel. What memories of England it brings as I see it every day here on the TV. Don tells me I am pressing my luck leaving it sit out but now about every one has seen it in our circle of friends it will go on the shelf in the china cupboard. My daughter went wild when she saw it as she has some of his minatures. She knows I like these type of pieces and also knows I wouldn't spent the money on myself so had to know all about it. I can't believe you would know the desires of mine to pick something so precious to me. You needn't have done a thing as your presence and your friendship is so meaningful to us but it shall be treasured for ever and always be a fond reminder of our short time we shared your company. Of course we shall meet again one day, and do hope you will make a return reunion. Maybe come some time in about October when the Iowa autumns are so pretty.

We enjoyed the notes from all of you, each one was recieved with fond memories and and happy every one made it to their destinations aafe and sound. I will say Jane how much we enjoyed the post card with the vets memorial and the DC monuments in the back ground, very impressive. Each note was enjoyed so much and felt as though we were sitting and visiting together all over again. Now that every one is back home and into their routine, except Betty and Ed, who are probably still cruising around the country, we hope we shall hear again from every one. We forgot to ask what route you would be taking back home again, not coming any where near Iowa are you? If so our doors are unlocked.

We haven't eaten our salmon as yet Ed---Don says save it but I have an idea it won't stay on the shelf much longer as he mentions it every once in a while.

Well we are watering and watering. How we need rain again. The corn is beginning to show distress. I can't believe God deal these farmers another dry disastrous crop year. We water flowers, tomatoes, beans, and rhubarb every night and they tell us high 90's all week. Our lawn is nearly all brown already and ususally July and August are hotter and dryer. well we shall survive.

I will close for this time and send our love and fond thoughts to all of you. Do let us hear from you again. Hope you enjoy the article.

Our love

Marian + Don

March 18

Dear Betty and Ed:

I'm glad your trip home went well, and that Betty continues to mend. It's certainly fortunate that you had someone willing to take care of getting the car back. Your letter sounded so cozy, Betty, written by the fire. I would say I envy you, but truly I am ready for spring. Spring keeps coming and going here, with wild temperature fluctuations. We've lost, or never had, half our beautiful blossoms because of the confusing weather. The Oriental magnolias, which look like giant, multi-layered pink and white tulip cups, were killed in the bud this year because of a sudden frost, and the cherry blossoms -- the famous ones -- not the ones scattered throughout the city, had about 48 hours when along came a day-long rain and took them away. I make it a point to look at every flower or blossoming tree I encounter, because God knows by the next day it could be frost-bitten and dead. Or, and we've had this too, wiped out by the extreme and unusual heat of last week. The serious gardeners must be sobbing in their fertilizer spreaders.

Wouldn't you know that I just got this letter started when I had to stop and change the ribbon cartridge. This is clearly a plot by a Korean cartel attempting to drive me mad. Now that I've finally made the shift to a PC with Word Perfect at the office, I find I'm very clumsy with a typewriter.

Yes, things are better at work. And to my great pleasure, I'm transferring to another department -- out of Health Care and into Economic Analysis. I will be much happier there, working with adults, real adults. Health Care is filled with really delightful (on a personal basis) young women, all of them under 30. The resulting atmosphere is that of a girls' dorm on prom night. Oh God, the scenes, screeches, "Do you know what Susan did/said/didn't do etc. etc." I'm too old for such emotions, or I've seen them too often, whatever the reason, I'm glad to be leaving. Our office is so large that moving to another section is really like moving to another country. I move on April 2, and I can't wait.

I don't know how easy it is for you to get to a movie house from your island home, but I really recommend Kenneth Branagh's Henry V. I have seen it twice, and plan to go at least once more. The power, the fire, the acting and the play combine to make an overwhelming experience. Branagh must be a remarkable young man (he is only 29). He produced and directed the movie, played Harry, and adapted the play for the screen. England seems to turn out more and better truly gifted actors and actresses than we do. I don't know why, but I enjoy the results. When Branagh does Harry's famous speech before the battle of Agincourt the experience is galvanic. I sit there with tears rolling down my face (where else would they roll?) for the power of the words and Branagh's superb delivery.

Dear Betty and Ed:

I'm glad your trip home went well, and that Betty continues to mend. It's certainly fortunate that you had someone willing to take care of getting the car back. Your letter sounded so cozy, Betty, written by the fire. I would say I envy you, but truly I am ready for spring. Spring keeps coming and going here, with wild temperature fluctuations. We've lost, or never had, half our beautiful blossoms because of the confusing weather. The Oriental magnolias, which look like giant, multi-layered pink and white tulip cups, were killed in the bud this year because of a sudden frost, and the cherry blossoms -- the famous ones -- and the ones scattered throughout the city, had about 48 hours when along came a day-long rain and took them away. I make it a point to look at every flower or blossoming tree I encounter, because God knows by the next day it would be frost-bitten and dead. Or, and we've had this too, wiped out by the extreme and unusual heat of last week. The serious gardeners must be sobbing in their fertilizer spreaders.

I can't make a firm commitment -- job and finances might interfere -- but if you find that you plan to return to Clinton, please let me know. If it's at all possible, I'd like to join you there for the pleasure of your company and the fun of ancestor-hunting.

Betty, when you mention the identity of Wm. Chandler's parents, I assume you mean Great-Grandfather Wm. Chandler, right? I'm fascinated by the number of geneaological research aids and publications you know about -- half the U.S. must be tracking down ancestors. Just a question -- what about the Conard connection? I mean, it's a less common name than Russell (I know they are different branches) and it might be possible to get more information, or at any rate, less confusing information, considering how many thousands of Russells there must be in the country. (I fear that was not the remark of a truly professional researcher.)

The boys are fine, but I'm envious of Perry. He no sooner got back from two weeks in Singapore and Australia than he was off to Budapest. At this rate I'll never have grandchildren. Perry's wife, Donna, goes with him when it's practical, i.e. when they can afford it. She missed the Singapore-Australia jaunt, but has gone to Budapest. I know that when they think of having children, they think of all the fun they're having now, and decide to postpone. Actually, I am pleased that they are able to enjoy themselves so much -- and love each other so much -- that they hate to be separated. In fact, Perry could have stayed longer in Australia and done some more sight-seeing, but he missed Donna so much he came back after his business appointments were finished. I think that's very sweet, especially after nearly eight years of marriage.

Well, it's Sunday night. Time to get my act together for tomorrow and find the courage to take a look at my income tax. I hope you're enjoying being home at last -- Betty, take care and don't overdo. You don't want to justify that medical helicopter tax.

Love,
Jane

Dear Mrs. Evans:

Five cousins visited the Clinton/Camanche area in May. We spent a week looking for family roots.

We spent several hours at the Clinton County Court House looking at vital records, but we were unable to find a marriage record for William A. Chandler and Lulu A. Jones. There was a notation in Mary McKenricks grandmother's diary about their marriage.

A reference in William M. Chandler's obituary gave the following information: "William Chandler was born in Peru, NY, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton Co. with his parents over 40 years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides."

In our search of Court House and cemetery records, we were unable to determine the identity of William Chandler's parents. His mother was still living in 1893 when William died.

Do you have any ideas concerning steps to take in finding William M. Chandler's parents?

What is the charge for helping us determine their identities?

Is any information available on the name, age, and death date for S. and A. Chandler interred in Lot 83, Section B, Rosehill Cemetery, Camanche?

I have enclosed a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your use. I have also enclosed a summary of our Russell ancestors and a sheet which shows all of our ancestors who lived in the Clinton County, Iowa, area.

Sincerely yours,

Betty Leach

Dear Geoff,

Sally produced a lot of excitement around here when she called and said,"Guess who I just talked to." It's hard to believe the search for you and Jane is over. But Sally was extremely diligent, and she was creative in seeking leads. It's certainly true, that all's well that ends well.

We are looking forward to meeting you both this summer. We feel that Clinton, Iowa, is a very good place to meet and get acquainted. We've never been to Clinton; but from your letter, it appears that there must be a lot of Cunard, Russell, and Jones family history in the area. I bought the 1988 Rand McNally Campground Directory yesterday. They were offering a $3 rebate. Guess where we send the rebate request. That's right, Clinton, Iowa.

Sally sent us a copy of your letter and Janes letters. We found them very interesting, and your letter especially provided a lot of genealogy information. We're anxious to get to the Archives to see if we can find Lou on the 1880 census. Hopefully, we'll find William and Roxanna on earlier censuses. We found them on the 1880 census in Clinton, Iowa. Your grandfather was 9 years old, and his brother, Lester, was 14.

We'll probably be travelling with our truck and travel trailer in May. We will combine our visit with you with a genealogy search of places where our ancestors lived. Our families, both Ed's and mine, made surprisingly similar moves, probably starting in Massachusetts, then to Vermont, on to Wisconsin, and finally to the Dakota Territory. And now we know that the Joneses and the Chandlers were in Iowa. At the moment, I have 19 places to visit. If it works out to be convenient for your vacation, the first or last part of May would probably be a little better for us. However, it is not a crucial matter, and we'll plan our trip around your vacations. We do, indeed, look forward to meeting you both and Jane.

This genealogy search has been very very rewarding. It is like working a giant, and never-ending puzzle.

In the English Origins of New England Families from the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Second series, Volume 1, we found a long article, pp. 354-367 on the Ancestry of William Chandler of Roxbury, Massachusetts. I wonder if we'll finally trace William A. and William M. Chandler's ancestry to Massachusetts.

The 1850 and 1860 censuses might provide us with some leads to the identity of William M. and Roxanna's parents. Well, time will tell.

Again, we're so glad Sally found you. I am enclosing a three-year old photo of Ed and me. It will be fascinating to see if family resemblances surface.

We'll see you in May. Do write when you have time.

Sincerely,

Ed + Betty

Gentlemen:

We have several family connections in Iowa, and we were interested in learning the best approach to finding information concerning our families.

Clinton, Clinton County

William M. Chandler reported to have been born in Clinton in 1841 or 1842.

Roxanna Russell, wife of William M. Chandler, reported to have been born in Clinton in 1841 or 1842.

James Earl Jones, reported to have been born in Kentucky. Married Mattied Cunard who is reported to have been born in Clinton.

William A. Chandler born in Cordova, Illinois, in 1871. Married Lulu A. Jones who was born in Clinton February 21, 1873. They were married in March 1893.

We, also, have or had family connections in Tama and Pottawattamie Counties.

Samuel Ashley King and his wife, Hannah Studwell King, lived in Tama County and Pottawattamie County until 1883 when they moved to Dakota Territory.

We are doing a family genealogy study; and if you have suggestions or information that would be helpful to us, we will be very glad to pay copy costs.

Is there a list of old cemeteries in the Clinton area? We plan to be in Clinton for a reunion with new-found cousins in May, and we would like to know how to best proceed with our Iowa search.

How much do memberships in your Society cost?

I have enclosed a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your use.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

We have a number of relatives who lived in the Clinton area from about 1850. We are doing a family genealogy study, and we are seeking direction in our search.

The following names are included in our list of relatives:

Mary A. Russell--her husband's name is unknown at this time
Her children: Friend or Frank Russell, Amherst, Adna, Thomas and Roxanna Russell Chandler, born about 1841, our great grandmother.

William M. Chandler, born about 1842, our great grandfather.

George Connard, born about 1831, our great, great grandfather.
Lucinda Connard, born about 1832, our great, great grandmother.
Their children: Amanda J. Connard (Jones), our great grandmother, Isaac, Ida, John, Sarah, Lillie, Minnie, Maude.

James Earl Jones, our great grandfather, a railroad engineer married Amanda J. Connard in Clinton and later moved to Chicago.

Carter Jones, a brother of James Earl Jones, married Lillie Connard, a sister of Amanda J. Connard Jones. They are reported to have moved to Chicago, also.

A daughter of James Earl Jones and Amanda J. Connard Jones, Lulu (Lula) A. Jones, our grandmother, married William Abraham Chandler, a son of William M. Chandler and Roxanna Russell Chandler.

Are any of the cemeteries in the Clinton area indexed? Is there anyone to whom we can write for information concerning our Clinton ancestors? Is there a local historical society that might have information concerning these early families.

Any information or direction that you can give us would be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed is my self-addressed, stamped envelope.

My great grandfather, William M. Chandler, died in Clinton, Iowa, in 1894 or 1895.

Do you have a probate file for William M. Chandler. William M. Chandler married Roxanna Russell Chandler. We have been told that they died within a year of each other in Clinton. They were both born about 1842.

If you have a probate record for Mr. Chandler, I would appreciate information concerning the cost of copies.

I have enclosed a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your use.

Does any office in your county have records of cemeteries that were in existence during the middle and late 1800's. I would appreciate a list of cemeteries with the names of their sextons if one is available. Any information you can supply will be greatly appreciated. We have several families, the Chandlers, the Cunards, and the Joneses, who were born or lived in and around clinton.

February 16, 1988

Dear Betty,

I could hardly believe my ears this morning whenI heard your voice. It just seems good to be in closer touch than we have over the past several years -- thanks to geneology for the role it is playing.

Almost within minutes of your morning's call I contacted the Lakewood Cemetery office and they gladly gave me what information their records revealed:

William A. Chandler
Date of Death: 12-9-20
Age 49 years

Lot #33
Section 28
Lakewood Cemetery, Mpls, MN

Other names appearing on their records:

Lester S. Chandler Died 1930

Mary Chandler (the person I talked to thought Mary might be Lester's wife)

Wesley William Chandler
Died 1914 age 11
Russell C. Chandler
Died 1900

From the record it appeared that LesterS. Chandler was the one who purchased the lot or lots. The name of Luella Jones ( ) Chandler did not appear anywhere. It was suggested that since William A. Chandler was only 49 years of age when he passed away that his widow may have remarried.

I was referred to the State Department of Health for further information
State of Minnesota
717 Delaware Street So.East
Minneapolis,MN 55455

Telephone 1-612-623-5121

They have death records from 1900 and Birth records from 1908
There is a charge of $8.00 for certificates.

I'm sorry that it was not possible to secure information on Luella Chandler.

The time is 2 o'clock in the afternoon and our mail still hasn't arrived. Will add a line to this letter before mailing - there has been a cut-back in mail service so that may be the reason for the delay.

If I can be of further help regarding the above, be sure to let me know.

Dear Researcher:

The Washington County Archives is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM.

Most books have indexes and many documents are original. Some documents are folded and filed in Woodruff files, and as you can imagine, are very fragile. It is our intention, as our Records Management Program progresses, to microfilm and index them for preservation purposes. At this point, it is very time consuming to retrieve information.

Upon receipt of your check or money order, payable to the Washington County Clerk, in the amount of $10.00, which is non-refundable, we will be happy to conduct a search of our files regarding your request. The charge for copies is $1.00 per page. There may be some limitation and restrictions of the photocoping of some records due to their fragile condition. We would also ask that for future requests a stamped self-addressed envelope be included to facilitate an early response.

NOTE: Early naturalization records, in most cases, have only the name of the person and the date of the Declaration of Intent or Oath. New York State usually has only Vital records for 1847-48-49 and after 1881.

* * The more information you can send me on the families in your researching, the better chance I will have to identify information to help you. * *

My $10 check for conducting a research of your files is enclosed. I understand that the $10 is non-refundable.

I would like to have you search your records for the following deeds: If you find any other important deeds for these people, I would like copies of them, too. I don't believe that Humphrey Russell died in Washington County, but it would be worth a look at the probate records. In addition, Nehemiah H. Russell, probably the oldest son of Humphrey, may have had some early deed activity in Washington County.

The following deeds concern Humphrey Russell, and his wife, Sylvia:

Humphrey Russell, and his wife, Sylvia, Fort Covington, Franklin Co., NY	VV	512	June 11, 1838 & March 6, 1837
Heirs of Abraham Briggs of White Creek, Washington Co., NY	to	Isaac Kosher
Charles Russell & wife, Huldah James Russell & wife, Sally	AA	295	April 1, 1828
Humphrey Russell & wife, Sylvia	to	Stephen Hoage
2 other deeds for Humphrey Russell and wife, Sylvia			1842

(?) Possible deeds for Nehemiah H. Russell

(?) Possible probate record for Humphrey Russell
(Nehemiah H. Russell died in Iowa.)

Your telephone call on the 10th came as another surprise. I was just sorry that I could not give you the exact information regarding the University of Minnesota Alumni address, but gave you the one for the U of M Minnesota Campus.

In our brief conversation I mentioned that I would be calling the Danish Consulate office here in Minneapolis to see if they could give me any assistance in how to go about tracing our family geneology. I talked directly to the Danish Consul (honory (sp) title) While he wasn't able to give me any information he was kind enough to refer me to a lady who was a member of the Danish American Geneological Society. I was able to reach her until last night and she graciously agreed to send me some literature. When I receive the material I will make copies of at least some of it and send you what she sent me. In our telephone conversation she stressed attempting to locate our Grandfather's naturalization papers, if at all possible,

The Danish Society meets once a month (except in the summer) One month at their meeting place and the next over at the St. Paul Geneological Bldg.

With this letter I am enclosing more poems by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. I would be interested in learning how you liked the one entitled - "Was, Is and Yet to Be".

Will be in Touch. It is wonderful that you and Ed have the time to delve into the past for the families of both our's and his.

Wednesday night

Dear Sally:

I thought you might enjoy these music books for your piano playing. They were my mother's, and I can remember her playing songs from them, and sometimes singing, a long time ago. It's a pity that most young people (that's anyone under 40) don't know these old songs, in fact they haven't even heard of them, my kids included.

When I was in grade school we had music classes two or three times a week, and I always thought they were a real treat. We sang all the Stephen Foster songs, we sang "Shine On, Harvest Moon," "Moonlight Bay," all the oldies. I couldn't have taught them to my kids if I'd tried, and I didn't try. It seems to me that when TV came along in the Fifties it cut us off from our own past and our own traditions. If it didn't happen on TV then it never happened. Ah well, I guess I'm getting cranky.

I was tired from the trip, too. When I got home on Sunday afternoon I just flopped on the couch and read the Sunday papers. Didn't even unpack. I pulled myself together on Monday and unpacked, did the laundry (like you) and removed the dust that had accumulated while I was gone. Not very inspiring.

As I said on the postcard (I hope it was coherent) the office was nothing but trouble for me when I got back. I won't try to explain because it involves character descriptions, situation descriptions, in other words, you had to be there. Briefly, one boss (who thank God! is leaving) was trying to push me out of the Health Care Group so that she could guarantee a clear track to a colleague of hers (and mine) who wants to transfer to Health Care. I fought back, hard and dirty, going over a number of heads to do so. It worked, I'm okay, and life goes on. Another difficulty in explaining the situation fully is that most people, including my kids, can't understand the type of really vicious behavior that is permitted and used at H&K Washington. I can do it too, but only when I'm under attack, not for the fun of it.

So you found moer family history at City Hall. I can see that family research is a very addictive hobby, besides being fun. I know it interests me. I don't much care if our ancestors were well-known or unknown, rich or poor, I enjoy unravelling the clues and tracking down information. (Just changed the ribbon.) It's like putting together a jigsaw puzzle, but the pieces are scattered across the country. Finding the various family cemetery plots was very moving to me and I felt strong curiosity about their lives. It's interesting that both William Chandlers died so early. As far as family medical history goes, I discount 19th century deaths because medical care and scientific knowledge wasn't all that advanced. What is minor or curable today could easily have caused early death then. There are TB deaths on both sides of my family -- Grandma Chandler's brother and my father's first cousin, plus some others, I'm sure, but TB was a common killer then, not now.

So you bought a copier, you wild, extravagant woman. Actually, that's a very useful item. Some day fax machines will be as common as household telephones, and then watch our letters zip back and forth.

I didn't buy a copier, but I did buy a charming Victorian rocker for my living room. Maybe I've mentioned that almost all of my post-separation/divorce furniture is either stuff from my folks' home or second-hand (but nice) items I've picked up in the last few years. The point is that anything shiny new would look completely out of place in my home, so I enjoy tracking down attractive odds and ends that aren't too expensive. I'm even learning how to bargain a bit.

I must go to bed. I slept badly last night and woke up an hour too early -- I misread the clock, and by the time I realized it was 4:45 a.m., not 5:45, I was in the kitchen making coffee. AARRRRGH! So sleepy head is off to bed.

Sally, I loved meeting all of you and getting to know you. That wasn't the only time it's going to happen, either, I hope you all realize that.

Love,

Jan

Dear Ed and Betty,

As promised, I am enclosing a copy of the 1905 Minneapolis Census.

I am so glad the Chandlers came out loud and clear. I have not given up on the 1910 census and will continue looking for them, this however I felt was a step forward.

Working more then I want, but they have had illness and terminations, plus vacations in the dept., and I find it hard to say no. Your Aunt Lee said when she retired they begged her to come back, but informed them she wouldn't even for 100 dollars a day. Didn't tell her, but I get 280 a day. She might think I was bragging.

Nothing else is new. Hope your search is fruitful.

Love,

Mrs Latimer —

Just a note to let you know we are alive and researching —

Recently discovered an Isabel Jones in 1880 census, widow of Thomas d.1875, living with a Geo. Huber (Hoover) with 3 girls incl. a Louella age 5, in Cedar Co Iowa (adj. to Clinton)

But 1900 census says Lou b. Ill.

but Vera E Leach death cert says mother b. Clinton Iowa -

Isabel above says she was b. Ia. and her parents in GA. (f.) + Va. (m.)
Sisters were Jenette age 13 + Clara 11 their father b. OH. (Thomas)

So will follow this clue Need to do 1900 Soundex Ill.
Will check Ill death records for Lou's death. and Wm's parents in February '82 when in Springfield.

I'm currently doing some temp. consulting work for the State of Iowa - Dept of Health Vital records. and Adoptions.

Enclosed copies of my work sheets - We hold most (99) of Illinois 1850 Censuses and some 1860, 70's, 80's but cant locate a logical Wm M. yet. See some good possibilities, but must get a fix on a Chandler in or near Wm M in 1870. Difficulty with Cordova is, it borders on 3 counties, and be able to get a better fix on Wm M.'s age. Assuming I find Wm M. w/parents, I should find Rebecca Russell nearby -

Best regards -

Dear Mrs. Latimer,

Thank you for the death certificates and census. I believe these documents probably confirm my suspicion that the area we're dealing with, first, is Clinton, Iowa-Cordova, Illinois. They are not more than 10 miles apart, and between which there was great commerce back and forth, especially at the turn of the century and prior. Because Cordova, Illinois is so near the Whiteside County line (North) which is across the river from Clinton, Iowa, it's possible Whiteside County rather than Rock Island will prove to be more fruitful. The migration travel for many New England - New York families was Northern Illinois on what is now Route 30. I also see why you went to the Dakotas with your uncle. Northern Illinois thru Minnesota and then the Dakotas is very strong migration trail in the 1880's thru the 1920's. Further, I see an I. W. Jones in Clinton County, Iowa, Dewitt Township, in 1876. In your 1st letter you indicated Clinton, Ill. as the probable birthplace for Lou, and Clinton, Illinois is located in Dewitt County, Illinois.

After reviewing the new material, we would undertake research for you on the following basis: We charge $10.00 per hour for actual time spent (no travel charges, because we do the searches at our convenience only, may take a little longer) and we will proceed, upon receipt of your retainer of $25.00, our minimum, we would do the following:

1. Ask for a check in Illinois (State) Vitals for Lou's Death Certificate 1932-1942.
2. Check Rock Island County, Illinois, for "Chandlers-Russells" 1850-1900.
3. Check Whiteside County, Illinois as in #2.
4. Check Clinton County, Iowa for "Jones" as in #2.

This would include Courthouse, extant cemetery records and Soundex Census' for 1880 & 1900, plus miscellaneous genealogy and historical records in libraries where appropriate. We can then forward the results of our searches, indicate what further search, if any, would probably be fruitful and you can make the decision to proceed or not. Most all our clients prefer this system which allows for a review after each research effort to reflect on and evaluate the results.

Hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

P.S. May I assume you have your Chandler and Russell lines back into New England? These are excellent lines (and other's related) which are usually Mayflower descendants. My wife is a Chandler descendant, (Capt. Jonathan b. 1750 in New Hampshire and Vermont). We usually do our lines and our clients to the immigrant only.

WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD.

He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning.

William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years and eight months.

William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxana Russell, of Camanche, and in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided.

Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished.

Of the immediate family a devoted wife and two sons—Lester and William—are left to mourn.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment in the cemetery at Camanche.

A Resident of Clinton County Since 1843 —Funeral Arrangements.

From Friday's Daily.

From Friday's Daily.

James McElhaney was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Wolfe this morning, for assault upon Officer James Cole with intent to commit murder. John McHale, implicated in the same case, found guilty by the jury of assault to do great bodily injury, was sentenced to four months in the county jail.

It will remembered that on the night of Saturday, June 23, at midnight, or shortly after, Officer James N. Cole went into Andras Andresen's saloon, at Camanche avenue and Harrison street, to quiet a disturbance in that place. He was set upon by James and John McHale, James McElhaney and William Ryner, and a desperate fight ensued in which Cole was so terribly bruised and beaten
